Capobianco launches Flooring Answers for companies with limited technical staff

Christopher Capobianco, a fourth generation floor covering specialist and FCI columnist, has launched Flooring Answers, a firm which he describes as a source of support, information and training for flooring companies with limited technical personnel. Capobianco aims to provide training guidance and conduct training seminars, oversee job sites for troubleshooting, and consult with manufacturers seeking to introduce new products by supervising test installations and the ASTM product testing process.

Capobianco is vice chairman of the Floor Covering Installation Contractors Association (FCICA) and chairs the resilient Flooring Inspection Committee for the Institute of Inspection Cleaning and Restoration Certification. For more information, visit www.flooringanswers.com or call (631) 275-6494.
